

The BBC School Report Sport Team at Kimberley School spoke to Mr. Hield, a football fan, about Manchester United going into debt with Glazers.

DC: What do you think about the debt with Glazers?

MH: It is atrocious, historic club like ManU, they have settled the club with 700 million debt and they have taken out 260 million from interest in payments.

DC: Was it a shock when you found out ManU were in debt?

MH: It wasn't a shock they borrowed the money So they can pay back in a couple of years. Ticket prices have risen by 45% and they take 70% to the Glazers.

MAN UTD ENTER DEBT!

DC: Do you think the fans are doing the right thing to try and make them be brought out?

MH: If the fans don't they won't be able to compete in European Championships. We then spoke to Mr Sander-son who is a ManU fan. He told us "I think it is all a misunderstanding and MAnU just aren't spending their money on the club."
