Pompey fans celebrating before they went in administration!

Fans get worried as Portsmouth officially enter administration.

On 10:20 am on Friday 26th March Portsmouth (also known as Pompey) officially entered administration. The club which was founded in 1898 and home ground is Fratton Park will now face a 9 point penalty., because of their financial troubles. We spoke to a Newcastle fan who told us "In my opinion the main reasons for Portsmouth's money troubles are they were too ambitious and became too greedy, also they
