The Jump From GCSE

A levels are an enormous jump in terms of the amount of content that has to be learned. There is also a great difference in the exams.

GCSE Question

1 (d) (i) James has a phobia of flying. Whenever he tries to go on a plane, he starts to shake, his heart beats faster and he begins to sweat. Recently, this fear has got worse and he is unable even to look at a plane without feeling scared. He has booked a holiday abroad with his friends and goes in 3 months' time. James has decided to go to a psychologist to be treated for his phobia.

Explain how the psychologist might use systematic desensitisation to treat James's fear of flying.
