

Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

Financial Year: 1st September 2020 to 31st August 2021

Introduction

This statement has been published in accordance with the requirements of section 54 (1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015. The statement sets out the steps the East Midlands Education Trust has taken and is committing to take to understand all potential slavery or human trafficking risks related to our business and to put in place steps that are aimed at ensuring that these are eliminated within our own business or supply chains. This statement relates to actions and activities that have taken place during the Trust's financial year of 1st September 2020 to 31st August 2021.

Modern slavery is a term used to encapsulate the crimes of slavery, servitude, forced or compulsory labour and human trafficking. The East Midlands Education Trust is fully supportive of the government's objectives to eradicate slavery and human trafficking and does not engage in, or condone, these practices. We are committed to further improving our practices to enable us to identify and eradicate any slavery or human trafficking within our supply chains.

Organisational Structure

The East Midlands Education Trust is a Multi-Academy Trust providing education for pupils within the East Midlands region. The Trust comprises 8 secondary schools, 10 primary schools and 1 alternative education provider.

Countries of Operation

The East Midlands Education Trust only operates within England and our contractors and suppliers are predominantly UK based.

Supply Chains

We have identified that some of our procurement takes place within sectors where slavery or human trafficking could occur, such as;

- Cleaning;
- Catering;
- Security services;
- Staffing;
- uniform supply;
- ICT equipment;
- Construction.

However, this list is not exhaustive.

Relevant Policies

The East Midlands Education Trust operates the following policies which could help to reduce the risk of slavery and human trafficking within our organisation:

- Whistleblowing Policy

This policy ensures that all staff, Trustees, governors, volunteers, contractors and suppliers are able to raise any concerns about wrongdoing or malpractice within the Trust without fear of victimisation, subsequent discrimination or disadvantage. This would include any circumstances that may give rise to a risk of slavery or human trafficking.

- Employee Code of Conduct

The underlying principle of the Trust's Code of Conduct is that all staff must act within the law whilst undertaking their official duties. Staff must not undermine fundamental values, including democracy, individual liberty and mutual respect, and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs. These fundamental values would include any concerns regarding slavery or human trafficking.

- Safer Recruitment Policy

Although aimed predominantly at safeguarding the welfare of pupils within our schools, the Safer Recruitment Policy demands extensive checks are made on all potential staff, volunteers and contractors prior to starting work. Some of these checks have the potential to flag up concerns regarding slavery or human trafficking.

- Procurement Policy

This policy is the backbone of the Trust's Procurement and Purchasing activities that all staff involved in Purchasing must follow. It sets Trust key principles in relation to Ethical Procurement including modern day slavery, trafficking, the use of child labour and bribery.

Action Taken This Financial Year

- Creation of a Trust Procurement Policy which underlines the laws, regulations and an ethical way of procuring goods and services.
- Revised new supplier process which collects key ethical information including modern slavery, trafficking and child labour. All answers are used as criteria when reviewing suitability of the new supplier relationship.
- Tender creation/Evaluation template created which must contain an ethical element. The advice for countries and/or categories at higher risk of modern slavery and human trafficking is to include these specific areas at Tender stage.

Future Steps

Although it is believed that there are no areas of the business at high risk of slavery or human trafficking, the following steps will be taken to protect workers from being exploited in this way within the Trust and within our supply chains:

- Policy

- Consider the implementation of a trust wide Ethical and Sustainable Policy which will ensure the trust and it's supply chain operate in an ethical manner and contribute to economic, social and environmental needs.
- Consider a suppliers code of conduct which all suppliers to the Trust must comply with which will include Ethical standards to comply with.
- Consider the creation of an Anti Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy, or other policy, which outlines our duties as an employer, potential warning signs and what staff should do if they have concerns.

- Procurement and the Supply Chain

- To review the new supplier process to ensure it is current and effective when identifying risk relating to modern slavery.
- Supplier segmentation and consolidation to increase relationships with key suppliers and to reduce overall risk of modern slavery within the Trust's supply chain.

- Training and Awareness

- Ensure all staff are notified about updated policies that refer to their duty to help prevent slavery and human trafficking in our services and operations;
- Implement more in-depth training for all staff involved in Procurement and HR to ensure they understand the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking.

This statement is made in accordance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015 section 54 (1) and constitutes our modern slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 31st August 2021.
