SIXTH FORM

SIXTH FORM Entry Requirements

Some facts to explain our entry requirements:

A-Levels are a Level 3 qualification.

GCSEs are a Level 2 qualification.

A-Levels are achieved through two years of study. Students are examined in the summer of Year 13 on all topics studied across the two years of the A Level course.

To enter the Sixth Form to study A-Level subjects, students need to achieve a minimum of five 9 to 4 grades across their GCSEs.

There are further individual entry requirements for each A-Level course. A list of these can be found overleaf.

Students in the Sixth Form either study 3 A-Levels or 4 A-Levels. How many they study is determined by a student's GCSE grades: if a student has achieved mostly grade 6s or above, we recommend that they study 4 A Levels, dropping one of these at the end of Year 12 as they continue with their study of the remaining 3 into A-Level; If a student has achieved mostly 4s/ 5s, we recommend that they study 3 A Levels from the beginning of Year 12.

Students will sit school examinations in Year 12. If students do not gain passes in three A Level subjects they will not be able to continue into Year 13 to complete their A Levels.

If a student achieves fewer than 5 GCSE 9 to 4 grades, they cannot undertake A-Level study but instead we offer a Level 2 qualification as an alternative course, which provides students with the equivalent of 5 GCSE 9 to 4 passes.

A student's eligibility for this course is not based on GCSE results but is determined by their teachers' perception of their performance (attitude, effort, behaviour and standard of work) across their school career to date.

Students who do not have a Grade 4 in Maths or English language or literacy are required to study a GCSE in that subject in Year 12.
